Boating should feel like joy, not logistics.

Play Pass is our unique way to bring more people onto the water without the high cost, steep learning curve, or rigid structure of traditional clubs. This is not a typical training school. It's a membership experience that combines boating adventures, small-group lessons, and connection - all built around flexibility and access for those with a busy schedule.

How It Works

With Play Pass, you pay a one-time initiation fee and affordable monthly dues. That's it. No hidden costs, no endless course fees, and no waiting months to get "qualified" before you can enjoy the Bay.

Each month, we schedule a variety of Show Up & Play Days - half-day adventures on the San Francisco Bay led by our licensed captains and instructors. You choose the days that fit your calendar and come aboard.

Whether you're new to boating or returning after a break, you'll learn naturally by doing through a mix of hands-on experience and small-group lessons - all part of the membership.

Members can enjoy both sailing and powerboating, with regular opportunities to build skills, explore new destinations, and relax in good company.

Why It's Different

Traditional clubs make you jump through hoops. Play Pass flips that model.

Typical Sailing Clubs:

- Pay a joining fee
- Pay separately for every training class
- Pay separately for club activities
- Wait to "qualify" before you can book a boat
- Pay rental fees for boats to use
- Find people to boat with
- Pay monthly dues

The Play Pass:

- Regular scheduled boating days led by our captains
- Small-group lessons part of your membership
- Options for both sailing and powerboating
- A ready-made boating community — perfect for those whose friends or partners don't share the passion
- Member discounts on all our other services and offerings
- Free passes to our themed Day Retreats

You can come for the skill-building, the sunshine, or simply the serenity. Every outing helps you become more confident on the water while connecting with people who share your sense of adventure. The Play Pass is perfect if you've always wanted the excitement and wellness benefits of boating without the headaches of ownership.

It's for people who crave flexibility - no complex schedules, no rigid commitments - and love the idea of meeting like-minded adventurers while learning and playing on the water. It's for anyone who wants access to inspiring, joy-filled activities that nurture well-being, or who has always wanted to try boating but didn't know where to start.

With its easy, welcoming atmosphere, Play Pass lets you learn by doing, improve your skills at your own pace, and rediscover the freedom of being outdoors - moving your body, breathing salt air, and reconnecting with what feels good.

Who This is For

Play Pass is ideal for you if you:

- Have dreamed of boating but don't want to own or maintain a vessel
- Want flexible, fun access to boating adventures without long-term commitments
- Want to learn at your own pace in a friendly, supportive setting
- Miss being outdoors and crave more time in nature
- Want a community of curious, adventurous people to explore with
